We are so proud to note that our AEC member of Nkiliji branch took oath to serve the Swaziland Government as the member in the house of the Senate.

This is the Hon Sen Ndumiso Mdluli, who was a lecturer, businessman, active Regional Executive Secretary of AEC Swaziland Region who is a committed member of the Nkiliji branch thanked God for this rare honour of having a member of their local church to be highly honoured to rub shoulders with many Honorable Excellencies and Ministers at this time. In honour to God, the Nkiliji had a thanksgiving service on Sunday 8 June 2014 where among other Guests, was the Acting Prime Minister in the company of Cabinet Ministers, MPs, Senators, President of AEC Southern Africa, Pastoral leadership and other Pastors from different denominations were in attendance.

We humbly request the church to pray for him in his new portfolio in the august Houses of Parliament in Swaziland Government. May His name be glorified through this placement of this young Christian leader.
